

Preparing for investment

Are you seeking investment to grow your business? Understanding how to write and deliver a suitable investment proposal and having a knowledge of the financial and legal considerations are vital to attracting an investment.

Trade and Investment Queensland is hosting an investment seminar to provide information on:

- preparing a business to be investment ready
- preparing finances for attracting investors
- legal structures needed to facilitate investment
- preparing an investment proposal
- pitching to a potential investor.

Speakers

Mr Loong Lee – Mentoring & Investment Readiness team, Queensland Government

“Preparing for investment and pitching to investors”

Mr Russell Beer – Partner, MacDonnells Law

“Structures for equity investment”

Mr Cam Charlton – Director, Kleinhardt Consulting

“Developing an investment proposal”

Mr Jeff Schrale – Queensland State Agribusiness Manager, Regional Business Banking, ANZ Bank

“Being financially ready for investment”

Date

Wednesday 4 September 2013

Time

9.00am to 4.30pm

Venue

Mitchell Room, First Floor, A Block
(enter from car park ramp)

Department of Natural Resources and Mines
28 Peters Street, Mareeba

RSVP

Monday 2 September (limited places)

Judy Noller, 4057 3321 or judy.noller@qld.gov.au

Cost

Complimentary

